INTRODUCTION

1. Effective from 1 September 2018, Sales Tax Act 2018 and the Service Tax Act 2018 together with its respective subsidiary legislations are introduced to replace the Goods and Service (GST) Act 2014.
2. Under the Sales Tax Act 2018, sales tax is charged and levied on imported and locally manufactured goods either at the time of importation or at the time the goods are sold or otherwise disposed of by the registered manufacturer. Whereas, the Service Tax Act 2018 stipulates that service tax is charged and levied on any provision of taxable services chargeable by taxable persons in Malaysia.
3. This guide is prepared to assist individuals or businesses in understanding the provisions of the Sales Tax Act 2018 and the Service Tax Act 2018 in relation to customs ruling and the procedures related to the application of a customs ruling from the Royal Malaysian Customs Department (RMCD).
4. Under section 43 of the Sales Tax Act 2018 and Service Tax Act 2018, upon request by any person, RMCD may issue customs ruling for the interpretation and classification regarding to sales tax and service tax treatment on issues related to certain industries.

RELEVANT PROVISIONS

5. Specific provisions are introduced in the Sales Tax Act 2018 and Service Tax Act 2018 as well as in the Sales Tax (Customs Ruling) Regulations 2018 and Services Tax (Customs Ruling) Regulations 2018 with regards to the implementation of the customs ruling.
6. Section 43 of the Sales Tax Act 2018 and section 42 of the Service Tax Act 2018 allow a person to request for a ruling from the Director General (DG) of Customs by using a prescribed form with fee. The DG is empowered to make a customs ruling on how the provision of the Sales Tax Act 2018 and the Service Tax Act 2018 would apply to the person and to the matters for which the ruling is sought.

7. A customs ruling issued by the Director General (DG) shall be binding upon a person in relation to any matters specified in the application made by the applicant and is valid for a period of three years from the date stated in the customs ruling as provided under section 44 of the Sales Tax Act 2018 and section 43 of the Service Tax Act 2018.

SCOPE OF CUSTOMS RULING

Matters Where A Customs Ruling May Be Sought

8. Any person may apply for a customs ruling in respect of any one or more of the following matters:

- (i) For sales tax:
 - (a) The classification of taxable goods
 - (b) The determination of a taxable person;
 - (c) The principles to be adopted for the purposes of determination of value of taxable goods; or
 - (d) Any other matters as determined by the DG.

- (ii) For service tax:
 - (a) The determination of a taxable service;
 - (b) The determination of a taxable person;
 - (c) The principles to be adopted for the purposes of determination of value of a service; or
 - (d) Any other matters as determined by the DG.

APPLICATION FOR CUSTOMS RULING

When To Submit An Application

9. An application for customs ruling in respect of imported goods, manufactured goods or provision of service may be made at the following times:

- (i) At any time before the goods that are the subject matter of the application, are to be imported or intended to be imported into Malaysia or are to be manufactured;

- (ii) At any time before a service is provided; or
- (iii) At any time permitted by the DG.

10. An application may be withdrawn at any time before the ruling is issued by the applicant. However, the fee relating to the customs ruling will be forfeited.

Fees

11. An application for a customs ruling will only be processed after the payment of the processing fee of RM200.00 is paid by the applicant.

12. The types of fees are as follows:

(i) Processing Fee

A processing fee of RM200 is payable upon application of customs ruling and is non-refundable. The fee is to be paid before the application is registered and processed by Technical Services Division, RMCD Headquarters, Putrajaya.

(ii) Analysis Fee

In cases where an analysis is required to be conducted by any specific person or body before a customs ruling is made, a fee may be incurred and charged for the purpose of the analysis. The fee shall be borne by the applicant.

(iii) Certified Copy Fee

The holder of a customs ruling may request for a certified copy of the holder's ruling for a fee of RM50.

NON-ISSUANCE OF A CUSTOMS RULING

13. An application for a customs ruling may be declined and a ruling may not be issued by the DG under the following situations:

- (i) The information given by the applicant is insufficient;
- (ii) The application is for a hypothetical situation; or
- (iii) Any pending appeal under section 96 of the Sales Tax Act 2018 or section 81 of the Service Tax Act 2018 involves the subject matter referred to in the application.

14. The applicant will be notified in writing at the earliest possible time and given the reasons for the DG not making or declining to make a customs ruling.

PROCEDURE RELATED TO CUSTOMS RULING

New Application

15. An application for a customs ruling has to be made in a prescribe form:

- (i) For sales tax application on matters below, the application shall be made using the form of First Schedule of Sales Tax (Customs Ruling) Regulations 2018:
 - (a) The determination of manufacturing;
 - (b) The determination of a taxable person;

Processing Application of Customs Ruling

18. A consultation between RMCD and the applicant may be made. The DG shall issue a customs ruling within a period of 90 days (ninety days) from the date of the acknowledgement of receipt of the application.

19. In cases where an analysis is required to be conducted by a specific body or party, the applicant will be notified through a written notice. If the applicant agreed on the analysis, then he needs to make a payment to that specific body or party which is doing the analysis. If the applicant disagrees, DG will issue a written notice stating that an application for a customs ruling will not be able to proceed as the requirement of conducting an analysis is not fulfilled.

20. A customs ruling shall be issued within a period of 60 days (sixty days) from the date:

- (i) The receipt by the DG of the analysis report; and
- (ii) The analysis fee has been paid by the applicant to the specific body or party.

ISSUANCE AND VALIDITY OF A CUSTOMS RULING

21. A customs ruling will be issued in the form prescribed in the Second Schedule of the Sales Tax (Customs Ruling) Regulations 2018 or Second Schedule of the Service Tax (Customs Ruling) Regulations 2018. The ruling shall be valid for a period of three years from the date stated in the customs ruling.

WITHDRAWAL OF AN APPLICATION

22. An applicant may withdraw his application at any time before a customs ruling is made and any payment related to the application will not be refunded.

RENEWAL OF A CUSTOMS RULING

23. A request to renew a customs ruling may be made by the holder of the customs ruling by submitting the application in the form prescribed in the Third Schedule of the Sales Tax (Customs Ruling) Regulations 2018 or Third Schedule of the Service Tax (Customs Ruling) Regulations 2018.

24. The application must be made at least three (3) months before the date of expiry of the customs ruling.

25. A renewed customs ruling may be issued with or without imposing any condition on the ruling or a renewal may also be declined and not issued at all.

26. An application for renewal of a customs ruling is not subject to any processing fee.

27. Upon receiving renewal application, a consultation between RMCD and the applicant may be made. Subsequently, a renewal of a customs ruling will be issued in the form prescribed in the Second Schedule of the Sales Tax (Customs Ruling) Regulations 2018 or Second Schedule of the Service Tax (Customs Ruling) Regulations 2018.

28. A renewed customs ruling shall be valid for a period of two years from the date of its original expiry.

AMENDMENT, MODIFICATION OR REVOCATION OF CUSTOMS RULING

29. A customs ruling may be amended, modified or revoked by the DG if:

- (i) The customs ruling contains an error which needs to be corrected;
- (ii) The customs ruling was based on error of fact or law;

- (iii) There is a change of law relating to sales tax or service tax; or
- (iv) There is a change in the material fact or circumstances on which the customs ruling was based.

30. Any customs ruling which is amended, modified or revoked by the DG will be notified to the applicant and such amendment, modification or revocation will take effect from the date stated in the notice.

31. If the amendment, modification or revocation of the customs ruling result in a decreased in the sales tax or service tax liability, any higher sale tax or service tax which has been paid is treated as if the higher sale tax or service tax has been erroneously paid.

CUSTOMS RULING DECLARED NULL, VOID AND OF NO EFFECT

32. Customs rulings shall become null, void and of no effect in the cases of :

- (i) Any customs ruling which was obtained by way of fraud, misrepresentation or falsification of facts. The applicant will be notify through a notice by the DG.
- (ii) If the applicant receives two or more customs ruling on the same subject matter.

33. If an applicant receives two or more customs rulings on the same subject matter, the rulings are treated as null and void and he must immediately notify the DG of such occurrence and the DG shall within thirty days of his notification make a new customs ruling.

CONFIRMATION OF BASIS OF CUSTOMS RULING

34. The DG may through a written notice require the holder of a customs ruling to confirm certain matters such as:

- (i) That the facts or information on the basis of which the customs ruling was made by the DG remain unchanged; and

- (ii) That any condition imposed in the customs ruling has been complied with by the holder.

35. The holder of the customs ruling upon receiving the notification from the DG, he shall respond to the inquiry within a period of thirty days from the date of the written notice or any extension of time given by the DG. Failing which the DG shall withdraw the customs ruling and such withdrawal shall take effect from the date specified in the written notice.

REQUEST FOR CERTIFIED COPY OF CUSTOMS RULING

36. The holder of a customs ruling may request from the DG a certified copy of the holder's ruling and the certified copy shall be subject to a fee of RM50.00.

37. The holder of a customs ruling shall write to the DG requesting a certified copy of his ruling and deliver in person his written request to RMCD Putrajaya :

Technical Services Division,
Classification, Tariff and Drafting Branch,
Level 6 North, Finance Ministry Complex,
No. 3, Persiaran Perdana, Precinct 2,
62596 Putrajaya.

38. The holder will be issued a letter by RMCD requesting for an application fee of RM50.00 to be paid either by cash or bank draft under the name of KETUA PENGARAH KASTAM MALAYSIA at a specific cashier's counter. Applicants are advised to submit their application before 03.30 pm.

39. An official receipt will be given to the holder upon settlement of payment and the receipt is to be submitted to the respective Technical Services Division so that the request for a certified copy of the customs ruling may be registered and processed accordingly.

ERRORS IN CUSTOMS RULING

40. Any typographical or other minor error found in a customs ruling which has been issued by the DG does not result in the customs ruling becoming void or affected by the error if such occurrences does not change the meaning of the customs ruling in substance and effect.
